Multi-Sensory Environments

Space to engage and refresh

Welcome to our 2026 catalogue!

Adults often forget that play is powerful, but it is the most encouraging force known to children.

It is through play that children push themselves, demonstrate abilities and achieve goals. Therefore no one young or old should be prevented from playing.

TFH have been overcoming obstacles to play for 35 years: we curate a catalogue that is translated into 8 languages, our partners distribute in 13 countries and the special needs toys we manufacture are sold in over 100 countries.

Please enjoy our catalogue, its design is aimed at guiding you to the right toy. Everyone is different, but many goals and difficulties are shared, we use those to group our range.

We hope that it will inspire you to get in touch, we need help to improve and we love to hear from you.

9ROTC

Echo Chamber

Sitting on this simple pliant platform is popular because it creates a dished surface on which things roll towards you, and any noise it makes rolling toward you resonates through your body. It will also resonate your voice back to you if you lie on it.

• 120 x 120 x 10cm

9RSEC

Typically we think of music as being 'heard' by the ear, our most sensitive organ to the vibrations in the air. When the notes are very deep we also feel them with our body. Such vibration is the basis of Vibroacoustic therapy. The TFH Resonance Range magnifies musical vibrations so they are felt more easily. All Resonance items require an Amp, our Resonator Amp is perfect.

Resonance Beanbag

A beanbag with a beat. The special speaker inside provides strong musical resonance. Colour options are available. • 8 cubic feet

From being wrapped in swaddling blanket, to being tucked in at bedtime – “Sleep tight!” – to pulling a top tight around shoulders against a dark evening, there is something inherently comforting and calming about being tightly wrapped. Think of it like white noise or a blank canvas for your proprioceptive sense. Weighted products employ ‘Deep Pressure Touch Stimulation’, steady proprioceptive stimulation that balances other sensory “noise”, reducing distraction and the craving to self-stimulate.

Ball Blanket

Our deeply calming Ball Blanket has no seams and is made from in hospital-grade bedding material. Very easy to thoroughly clean. • 142 x 82cm

11lb Weighted Quilt

Now with lots of lovely cooling vents. There are no seams in our Weighted Quilt. There is nothing to pick at and nowhere for germs to hide. Perfect where infection control is required it is also very easy to wash in the home environment and dries quickly. Can be cleaned with 1,000 PPM active chlorine. 5kg. • 142 x 84cm

4WTQT

8lb Weighted Blanket

Our weighted Blankets are filled with silicone beads. Silicone beads are very dense so our blankets are thin for their weight. Our beads are very small so they do not feel or sound granular (reducing tactile and auditory stimulation) leading to a better night's sleep. Choose from 4 weights - the general consensus is that the blanket should weigh about 10% of the user's own weight. There are 8 edge loops connecting the inner (which can be wiped) to the luxurious cover which is much easier to wash. 3.6kg. • 150 x 100cm

The VESTIBULAR sense is a key element in sensory integration therapy.

Children and adults who are sensory challenged will often use toys that spin or bounce to stimulate their vestibular system - or their inner ear. The inner ear helps with balance and lets the body know when, and how fast, it is moving.

Some of our favourite vestibular activities involve playground accessories such as swings, trampolines, bouncers, and rockers.

These recreational activities are self-paced and fun, making them ideal for both stimulating the under-responsive child and calming for the over-responsive or sensory seeking child.

We are well known for our swing frames and accessories. These are not the cheapest frames but they are very high quality. TFH frames are made from 2" O/D galvanised steel with nylon swing bearings. The wide splay of the legs, in relation to the frame height, and the long hooked stakes give maximum stability.

8CARA

Ever since Jean Ayers identified* the importance of Sensory Integration (SI), and suggested a link with our vestibular sense, therapists have been including a regimen of swinging and spinning in their programs. It is possible* that a stimulated Vestibular helps the brain organise and process other sensory input. At TFH we believe in fun, and at this price you can experiment for yourself. Sensory Integration and the Child, 1979. "An important area for future research is to evaluate Sensory Integration in studies with strong experimental designs. Professionals should present Sensory Integration as untested and encourage families who are considering this intervention to evaluate it carefully" - The Association for Science in Autism Treatment (ASAT).

Physio Roll Medium Yellow

• 55 x 90cm

9PTH02

*A little bit of instability.
The body responds; engaging the stabilising muscles of the abdomen in order to maintain balance and control and, when that's not enough,
all the other muscles and movement skills. So wobbly supports help strengthen, improve flexibility,
co-ordination, and body
awareness.*

Gross motor skills and the progression of their development enables a person to be in control of their larger muscles. Much focus is placed on torso strength and control as it is the "centre of control" for the rest of the body. Fine motor skills enable precise motions, like picking up small objects, twisting knobs. Gross motor is more physical activity, whereas fine motor incorporates mental and muscle to complete tasks.

Whizzy Dizzy

This spinning disc is self propelled. The central disc provides a place for pulling yourself around as fast as you dare. 40kg Max. • 30 x 50cm dia

9MSP1

MSE can be a little daunting, you are after all trying to create a symbiotic system of interactive, interlocking expensive equipment. These packages work.

NEW*Chromatheme Corner

You don't really need a corner for this Package, but you do want a room which can be dimly lit. Includes Chromatheme and Projector, Fireworks Controller and a Mount.

9MSP2NEW*Resonance Corner

Now the magic really starts, as we add music. The Resonance Platform vibrates powerfully as well as filling the space with music. The Huub has the music and the Power Controller makes our rewards dance to the music, like a musical fireworks display.

9MSP3

We have been designing and installing Multi Sensory Environments (MSE) for over 30 years.

Our Multi Sensory equipment is big bold and beautiful.

Create rich sensory spaces that react to the user, allowing individuals to enjoy themselves and develop the understanding of control over their sensory world.

TFH offer a full package, we design and install.

Our MSE equipment is made in the UK and designed to be extremely simple to use and capable of withstanding the most robust of use. None the less we understand that because we offer a wide range of both Controllers and Rewards that customers who want an MSE will need help throughout the process. The first step is to give us a call...

Power Controller

Pairs automatically with our new Controllers and Rewards. Switch Rewards on, set their energy levels, pair them with Rewards and at the end of the day switch them off again. Bubble Columns are the visual focal point of a multi-sensory room.

A really good Bubble Column has bright controllable colours: its quiet pump is powerful and can be controlled by a user.

Airflow effects the mood of the space: a gentle flow is more relaxing; full power is highly stimulating; while pulse patterns make the space come alive.

Our columns are all strongly built in our UK workshop.

They will not leak, we test them all.

We highly recommend the addition of a Security Bracket and, if space allows, a Podium.

1.2m Cascading Bead Insert

Podiums | MSE

Hide the Bubble

Column base and prevent its movement. A padded wooden podium also provides the user with a comfortable place to sit next to the bubble column and fully experience the effects. Podiums also provide an excellent home for a Fibre Optic Light Source. TFH can make podiums in any size or shape, curves cost more.

With mirrored sides and a padded top our podiums are the sturdy stalwarts of the Sensory room. Available in 2 shapes allowing the creation of all sorts of interesting shapes. Our podiums also feature a control panel retaining control over the hidden bases. Available in a wide range of colours.

Fireworks: Fill the sky with fireworks. Tunnels: Your colour choice grows from the center of the screen. Creative: The sprite moves across the screen, descending each time like a finger on a page of text your colour choice expands from that point. Create organic displays easily (with skill and patience more deliberate forms).

Pixels plays back your last fireworks display, remembers your creation and reverses your tunnel collapsing your expanding pattern back toward the center, changing the illusion of movement and reminding you of your choices.

Electro Wobble Garden

The most beautiful thing we have ever built. Guided by a world-renowned light artist this highly tactile interactive panel is stunningly simple & simply stunning. 72 quiet springs quiver in front of a captivating visual display, each one of them a sensor. Real, tangible responsive objects in their own right, the springs play in our physical realm in a way that reflects the wizardry beneath them. This is why our interactive tactile panel is genuinely tactile: it rewards touch with touch, it moves when you move, it's a kinaesthetic fantasia that actually wobbles, The Electro Wobble Garden is fireworks that you CAN go back to. 3 spectacular modes.

Projection Bubble

Lovely projection cave that folds away into a bag. • 190 x 100 x 100cm

9PJSH

The Projector is the heart of a Multi-Sensory Environment, casting gently moving images and patterns onto the walls, floor and anyone in the way. Projection Bubbles double the impact of the projector, as the image is projected both on and through the sheer material. Projection Bubbles allow you to actually touch the images without casting a shadow, creating a relaxing, almost fluid space, completely surrounded by light. Add a fan to stimulate Projection Curtains or a Panoramic Rotator to send the images flowing around the room and you have created an environment in which the normal rules have changed. Different behaviours will be exhibited; what can you make of them?

Scent Diffuser

Powerful and low-maintenance Diffuser. Most Aromatherapy Diffusers rely on significant human input, it's part of the fun really, choosing the oils and setting it all up. This is more of a Set-and-forget machine, because even the best Sensory Rooms can sometimes smell a little off-putting, and all of them require human to human engagement. Requires setting up (once) using the simple App so that it runs only during sensible times. Then let it run. A large bottle (250ml) of scent and sensible diffusion settings mean monthly maintenance at most, you might get much longer. Consider buying additional units for scent variation, using more sophisticated settings in the App. 12v. • 13 x 18 x 8cm
